Perhaps this is just campaign talk to defend against Walter Mondale's effort to paint the President as the special friend of the rich. But maybe Mr. Reagan has become too remote from even nonpartisan analyses of his policies. Recall that a year ago he pronounced himself "perplexed" by well-founded reports of hunger in the United States.	False		1984-08-07	TX 1-405968

After the phone company's big breakup, however, it's a whole new phone game, modeled on the old green stamp template. A.T. & T. has announced it will award "Opportunity Credits" on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each month's long-distance charges totaling $15 or more. The credits may then be used to buy consumer products at a discount. Call Seattle, say, and talk for two hours to reduce the price of a pickup truck. Call a friend in San Francisco for a lengthy palaver and earn credit for some corduroy trousers. A long telephonic klatsch with someone in Tucson helps with the purchase of a digital coffee maker or cordless shrub trimmer.	False		1984-08-07	TX 1-405970

In recent months more than 100,000 people have been massacred or starved, according to reports the State Department finds credible. Other diplomats assert that many died in camps served by international relief agencies, whose activities Uganda suspended last March. But no villainous tyrant is to blame. The blame falls on a feeble Government unable to control its army and unwilling to ask for the outside help it so plainly needs.	False		1984-08-15	TX 1-399681

Not the usual tin pins that used to eagerly spread such messages as "Win With Willkie" or "I Like Ike." Those are rarer now that their cost counts against Federal spending limits; most candidates prefer to save the money for TV. The new lapel pins are more elaborate, on the order of the small silver shoes with a hole in the sole once worn by Adlai Stevenson fans or the PT-109 tie clips favored by Kennedy partisans. There's another difference between the new pins and the old buttons. More than convey the sentiments of their wearers, the new pins reflect a collector's mentality. They're the currency of eager trading.	False		1984-09-07	TX 1-422246
